Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

This notice is provided by Intuit Inc. and is applicable to your U.S. Intuit account.

What we do

How does Intuit protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Intuit collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or seek financial or tax advice
- give us your contact information or give us your income information
- apply for a loan

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.
